The Gold Standard of Indian Spices

Bringing Premium Blends from Niche Spice Alchemists

We are a boutique importing business that specialises in premium spice brands from the Indian subcontinent, and retailing them through our ecommerce channels. Considering the huge potential for these spices that we have introduced in Australia for the first time, we are currently looking at stocking 3 of our brands with a maximum of 2 retail stores in Brisbane, introducing the remaining 3 at a later stage. We will provide you with sales assistance like digital marketing, posters and brochures for all our brands. We only deal with brands that we have exclusive importing rights for.

We have tied up with some extraordinary brands that take a very modern approach and perfectly retain traditional flavours. Most of our spice mixes are 'ready-to-cook' that don't need any ginger, garlic, onions, or other spices, and require very little time and effort to create. The spices are available for a huge range of dishes from many Indian cuisines. Our Nimkish brands is also available in commercial packaging that can be used by food businesses to create consistent quality menus and reduce employee cost dramatically.

WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS SAY

ANGE COWAN

We tried the 'ready-to-cook' range of spices online from Spice Nirvana and it's the best Indian food that's been cooked in our house, and it only took under 30 minutes to make! We like to be as healthy as we can (sometimes it doesn't work) and I was pretty impressed that these products have no preservatives, artificial colours or flavours. It was also really cheap and was delivered really quick. Try it next time you are thinking of having Indian.
